

I would be devastated if K-Love were removed from my local listening area..as a Christian, their broadcast allows me to worship through music as I travel and also helps to spread the word of Christ to others that my travel with me. Please consider the wishes of everyone when considering this decision...K-Love is the only station of it's kind in my area and the only station that is worthy of listening to in my car, at home, and at work!!!